

HJR76 INTRODUCED

1 HJR76
2 U9H19DX-1
3 By Representatives Crawford, Whitt, Moore (P), Harrison,
4 Rigsby
5 RFD: Rules
6 First Read: 03-Feb-26

1
2
3

4 HJR____ COMMENDING SANDRA THOMPSON FOR HER OUTSTANDING
5 LEADERSHIP AS DIRECTOR OF THE ALABAMA VETERANS MUSEUM AND 6 ARCHIVES.

7

8 WHEREAS, it is with profound appreciation and deepest
9 admiration that we recognize Sandra "Sandy" Thompson for 17
10 years of steadfast service and exemplary leadership as 11 Director of the Alabama Veterans Museum and Archives; and

12 WHEREAS, open in Athens since 2000, the Alabama
13 Veterans Museum and Archives (AVMA) is dedicated to the 14 memory of veterans from Alabama who served in all branches
15 of the United States Armed Forces; and

16 WHEREAS, due to Sandy's calm, innovative, and highly 17 efficient guidance, the past 17 years have been filled with 18 numerous accomplishments at the museum; her positive,
19 persuasive nature has been a tremendous tool in sustaining
20 the AVMA, which is now home to 2,000 artifacts belonging to 21 local veterans both past and present; the collection
22 includes uniforms, medals, weapons, photographs, and books
23 from all major American wars; and

24 WHEREAS, Sandy's job performance has exceeded
25 expectations; the AVMA mainly relies upon donations and 26 daily volunteers, and she is the only paid staff member;
27 under her leadership, the museum continues to succeed and 28 grow, due largely to Sandy's encouragement of others in

HJR76 INTRODUCED

29 order to accomplish a mission; and

30 WHEREAS, moving the museum from the Louisville and 31 Nashville Railroad Depot to its current location in the 32 larger Limestone County Events Center was indeed a great
33 challenge; however, Sandy, who is a retired Air Force Master
34 Sergeant with 20 years of service, met the challenge head-on 35 while organizing, planning, and executing the move in a 36 seamless fashion; her leadership style is commendable; and

37 WHEREAS, her ability to interact with elected
38 officials at the city, county, and state levels is another
39 positive attribute; she is well respected within the 40 business and political communities, and she has been very 41 connected in getting the community involved with the museum
42 as a whole; and

43 WHEREAS, under Sandy's direction, the museum has 44 sought to institute a variety of programs and activities to 45 bring in more members for the Alabama Veterans Museum
46 Foundation, raise funds, and increase the number of tourists
47 visiting the museum; some of these new activities include
48 blood drives, an annual fish fry, political rallies,
49 military shows, and participation in a yearly Veterans Day
50 Parade; these efforts also include a variety of successful
51 memorial programs; and

52 WHEREAS, Sandy has also helped initiate two of the 53 most popular fundraisers for the museum, such as the 54 "Threads of Honor" program allowing patrons to donate money
55 to have veterans' names and other military information
56 hand-stitched by local quilters into a quilt that hangs in

HJR76 INTRODUCED

57 perpetuity in the museum in their honor, and the monthly
58 "Coffee Call" offering visitors and locals the opportunity
59 to meet and talk with veterans while enjoying a free
60 breakfast; each event is sponsored by a local business or 61 group of veterans or civilians in honor of the men and women
62 who gave their lives in the service of the United States
63 Armed Forces; and

64 WHEREAS, Sandy Thompson has indeed left big 65 footprints to fill upon her retirement as Director of the 66 Alabama Veterans Museum and Archives; museum officials
67 estimate that more than 12,000 individuals visit the AVMA
68 each year; shortly after she became Director, the Alabama
69 Mountain Lakes Association honored the AVMA with the 2009
70 PEAK Award as Attraction of the Year for contributing to 71 tourism in North Alabama; now therefore,

72 BE IT RESOLVED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF ALABAMA, BOTH
73 HOUSES THEREOF CONCURRING, That we hereby most highly 74 commend Sandra "Sandy" Thompson for her faithful devotion to 75 her community and to honoring Alabama's veterans, and we 76 extend to her our heartfelt gratitude and sincere best 77 wishes for continued health, happiness, and fulfillment in 78 her future endeavors.