HR_____ COMMENDING THE PROFESSIONAL ACCOMPLISHMENT OF CLARENCE TAYLOR ON THE OCCASION OF HIS 70TH BIRTHDAY.

WHEREAS, with special pride, highest commendations are conveyed to Clarence Taylor for his lifetime of service through compassionate professionalism as a Funeral Director; with joyful felicitations, we also celebrate his milestone platinum jubilee birthday; and

WHEREAS, Clarence Taylor is the sixth of seven children born to the loving union of George Taylor, Sr. and Rosie Bell Williams Taylor on March 4, 1956, in Columbus, Georgia; he is a 1974 graduate of Smiths Station High School in Alabama; and

WHEREAS, from an early age, Clarence Taylor felt a deep connection to others and a determination to pursue that connection as a mortician; throughout his youth, he maintained his desire to serve grieving families and attained employment with Battle and Battle Funeral Home as a maintenance worker and an apprentice for two years before enrolling in the Funeral Service Education Program at Miami-Dade Community College; he graduated in 1976 and returned to Battle and Battle Funeral Home as assistant manager, ready to fully commit to serving the community through every aspect of funeral care; and

WHEREAS, Clarence Taylor continued to advance his

30 and Morticians Examination in 1976 and the State of 31 Alabama's examination in 1977; he became licensed as a
32 funeral director and embalmer in both Alabama and Georgia;
33 and he was promoted to manager of Battle and Battle in 1979,
34 serving there for many years with dedication and 35 perseverance; and

36 WHEREAS, in April 1991, Clarence Taylor officially 37 opened his own business, Taylor Funeral Home, Inc., in 38 Phenix City, Alabama; the funeral home is now in its 35th 39 year of serving families of all races and backgrounds; the 40 business offers an assortment of services designed to 41 deliver a thorough and dignified reflection of a life well
42 lived to grieving families; it is the only Black-owned 43 funeral home in the Phenix City and Columbus area that 44 provides grief support group meetings; and

45 WHEREAS, Clarence Taylor is also celebrating a life
46 well lived on the occasion of his platinum jubilee birthday, 47 a significant milestone that represents seven decades of 48 wisdom earned and memories gained and is a time of great 49 rejoicing; now therefore,

50 BE IT RESOLVED BY THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE 51 LEGISLATURE OF ALABAMA, That Clarence Taylor is highly 52 commended for his many professional achievements, each of 53 which is put into practice to serve others in the community,
54 and this resolution is offered to him as evidence of our 55 high regard and with best wishes for a happy birthday and 56 many more blessings and birthdays to come.
