HR_____ CELEBRATING MRS. KATHLEEN PEEVY UPON THE OCCASION OF HER 100TH BIRTHDAY.

WHEREAS, highest commendations and congratulations are offered to Mrs. Kathleen Peevy of Brewton, Alabama, on the momentous occasion of her 100th Birthday; and

WHEREAS, Kathleen Peevy was born on March 15, 1926, to Martin and Julia Still of Brewton; she graduated from W.S. Neal High School in 1944 and then attended business school in Montgomery; and

WHEREAS, following her graduation from business school, Kathleen started working for Bell South as a telephone operator; this career took her to Portland, Oregon; Milton, Florida; and Pensacola, Florida; during her time in Milton, she went to school to learn to become a test desk man for Bell South; this was unique for her as she was the first female test desk man in northwest Florida; and

WHEREAS, over the years, Kathleen has been involved in Ladies' Aid with the Methodist Church, and The Telephone Employees Activities Association, where she enjoyed playing golf, sewing, cooking, and gardening; a few years ago, Kathleen was honored to serve as Grand Marshal of the W.S.
Neal High School Homecoming Parade; and

WHEREAS, among her accomplishments, she has enjoyed being a wife, mother, grandmother, great-grandmother, and
