HR_____ MOURNING THE DEATH AND CELEBRATING THE LIFE OF PAULINE LACY.

WHEREAS, it is with profound sorrow that we note the death of Pauline Lacy, who transitioned peacefully on April 5, 2026, leaving behind a legacy that will continue to impact generations for years to come; and

WHEREAS, Pauline Lacy, born July 29, 1941, in Triana, Alabama, lived a life defined by strength, generosity, and unwavering love for her family and community; and

WHEREAS, a proud graduate of Council Training, Pauline believed in discipline, resilience, and personal growth, values she carried throughout her life; she dedicated more than 35 years of service to Chrysler in Huntsville, Alabama, where she was respected for her consistency, strong work ethic, and quiet strength; and

WHEREAS, Pauline Lacy was a pillar within her community; she had a gift for bringing people together; every Sunday, she prepared meals that became a gathering place for family and friends; Ortega Circle would fill with cars as people arrived in droves to commune, share laughter, and experience the warmth of her presence; what she created was more than a meal, it was a sense of belonging; and

WHEREAS, she opened her home to those in need without hesitation, often housing those who needed support,

29 guidance, or simply a place to feel safe; her generosity
30 knew no limits, and her heart was always full of love to 31 give; and

32 WHEREAS, above all, Pauline Lacy was the heart of her
33 family, a devoted mother, loving grandmother, and cherished 34 great-grandmother; her love was deep, intentional, and 35 steadfast; and

36 WHEREAS, she was preceded in death by her son,
37 Charles Lacy (Tarsha Campbell Lacy); left to cherish her 38 memory are her daughters, Wendy Lacy-Richardson (Kenneth 39 Richardson) and Destiny Payton-Williams; grandchildren,
40 Rhannon Lacy, Nadia Steward, Jemel Harper, and Law Williams;
41 great-grandchildren, Tristin, Layla, Londyn, Jaden, and Lola 42 Germono; and a host of extended family and friends; and

43 WHEREAS, Pauline Lacy's life stands as a testament to 44 faith, service, strength, and the power of love in action;
45 though she is no longer physically present, her legacy will 46 continue to live on through the many lives she touched and 47 the generations she nurtured; her legacy is not only 48 remembered, it is lived daily; now therefore,

49 BE IT RESOLVED BY THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE 50 LEGISLATURE OF ALABAMA, That although we mourn her passing,
51 we also celebrate the life and legacy of Pauline Lacy with 52 honor and thanksgiving; this resolution is offered with 53 heartfelt sympathy to her family, whose grief is shared by 54 many.
