4 SJR___ COMMENDING THE ALABAMA CHAPTERS OF THE DAUGHTERS OF 5 THE AMERICAN REVOLUTION AND THE SONS OF THE AMERICAN 6 REVOLUTION.

8 WHEREAS, it is fitting and proper that the 9 Legislature of Alabama commend those estimable organizations
10 that diligently strive to promote patriotism, preserve 11 American history, and support excellence in education for 12 our Nation's children; and

13 WHEREAS, among such distinguished service
14 organizations working within local communities throughout 15 this state are the Alabama Society, Daughters of the 16 American Revolution (ASDAR), and the Alabama Society Sons of 17 the American Revolution (ALSSAR); and

18 WHEREAS, the ASDAR was established in 1894 and today
19 consists of more than 4,000 members serving in 71 chapters 20 across the State of Alabama; it is affiliated with the 21 National Society of Daughters of the American Revolution
22 (DAR), a nonprofit, nonpolitical women's service
23 organization comprised of more than 185,000 members 24 nationwide; both the state and national societies are 25 steadfastly committed to the enduring mission of historic 26 preservation, education, and patriotism; and

27 WHEREAS, members of the ASDAR generously volunteer 28 their time and talents in numerous laudable community activities aligned with this mission, including erecting monuments, preserving historical records, providing financial support to Veterans, preparing care packages for residents of Veterans Affairs nursing homes, and sponsoring the DAR Good Citizens Award and Scholarship Contest for deserving high school seniors; and

WHEREAS, the ASDAR is especially commended for founding and sustaining the Kate Duncan Smith DAR School in Grant, Alabama, which was established in 1924 to provide educational opportunities for children in an isolated, rural, and economically disadvantaged region of the state; through continuous funding, construction, and unwavering support over the years, the ASDAR has ensured the school's ongoing success, and today the school proudly serves more than 1,300 students; and

WHEREAS, the ALSSAR is the state-level organization of the National Society of the Sons of the American Revolution, a highly respected national organization whose members are able to document lineage to patriots who supported the cause of American independence during the Revolutionary War; the organization is dedicated to fostering education, inspiration, and reverence for the principles and ideals that guided the Founding Fathers; and

WHEREAS, through a wide array of meaningful activities, the ALSSAR commemorates significant anniversaries of the Revolutionary era, acquires and preserves important historical records, documents, relics, and landmarks, and promotes fellowship and unity among the

57 descendants of American patriots; and

58 WHEREAS, the ALSSAR further advances the purposes set 59 forth in the Preamble to the Constitution of the United 60 States by sponsoring programs that recognize outstanding 61 academic achievement, exemplary public service, and 62 meaningful community involvement, while emphasizing the 63 enduring American ideals of patriotism and freedom; now 64 therefore,

65 BE IT RESOLVED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF ALABAMA, BOTH
66 HOUSES THEREOF CONCURRING, That we hereby commend and honor
67 the Alabama Society, Daughters of the American Revolution
68 and the Alabama Society Sons of the American Revolution for 69 their outstanding service to the State of Alabama and the 70 Nation; applaud their enduring legacy of dedication to 71 patriotic, educational, and historical endeavors; and extend 72 our sincere best wishes for their continued success in all 73 future undertakings.
